IF YOU NOTICE A LUMP SEE A DOCTOR TODAY

Testicular cancer is the number one most common cancer among young guys. The best thing you can do for yourself is to get it checked from a GP every month. You can get a lump and not know it. If you notice a lump or an unusual swelling, or any other change, it's best to see a doctor as soon as you can. When you do, early testicular cancer is highly treatable and highly curable.
